

Going to a performance at the FringeArts Theater

RELAXED PERFORMANCE PRE-VISIT INFORMATION

the theater

I am going to the FringeArts building to see a performance.

Inside the FringeArts building is the FringeArts Theater and a restaurant called La Peg Brasserie.

At FringeArts, I can see a variety of theater, dance, and music performances all year long.

La Peg restaurant

Inside the FringeArts building, I will see a restaurant and bar called La Peg Brasserie.

Some people come to La Peg to enjoy food or a drink before or after the performance.

paper ticket

I can either print my ticket at home and bring it to the theater or I can pick-up my ticket at the box office.

If I printed my ticket at home, I do not need to go to the box office. I can go straight to the theater doors and the usher will scan my paper ticket so I can go inside the theater.

box office token

If I did not bring a paper ticket with me to the theater I will need to go to the box office.

The box office is located to the right side of the restaurant behind the bar.

At the box office I will be given a wooden token. I will give this token to the usher at the theater doors, and it will serve as my ticket to get into the theater.

usher

Ushers are friendly helpers who will:

1. be at the entrance to the theater
2. scan my paper ticket that I printed at home or collect my wooden token that I got at the box office, and
3. give me a program for the performance.

FringeArts theater

The theater I will see the performance in is located down the hall from the restaurant.

I can ask the person at the box office where I will be entering the theater because there are multiple entrances.

hallway

I may have to wait in the hallway before the performance starts.

The hallway might be crowded and noisy.

If it is too loud, I can ask a FringeArts Theater staff member to direct me to a quieter place to wait for the performance.

crowds

Many people will be at the theater to see the performance.

The theater, the restaurant, and the hallway outside of the theater may be crowded.

I can go outside or look for a quieter area if I want to get away from the crowds.

waiting

I might have to wait in line at the box office, to get into the theater, to get to my seat, or to get into the bathroom.

After the performance, I might have to wait to leave the theater.

bathroom

The bathroom is in the hallway outside of the theater.

There are signs in the hallway pointing me in the direction of the bathroom.

I can also ask any FringeArts Theater staff member to show me where the bathroom is.

I can use the bathroom anytime during the performance.

The toilets in the bathroom flush manually using the silver lever.

inside the theater

When I go inside the theater, I will see lots of seats and the stage where the performance will take place.

I will also see other audience members who are also there to see the performance.

seat

When I get inside the theater, I can sit in any seat that is not being taken by someone else.

clapping

People will clap during the performance.

I can clap if I like what I see or hear.

People clap for a short time.

I can wear ear plugs if it is too loud.

leaving

When the performance is over, I will leave the theater.

The hallway and the restaurant will be crowded after the performance.

Credits

Remy Binder, Vivian Hin, Christina Neroni, and Joanna Reed
Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

Roger Ideishi, JD, OT/L, FAOTA
Occupational Therapy Program Director & Professor
Temple University, Philadelphia, PA
Advisor

Christina Smith
Design Inspiration

Raina Searles
FringeArts Marketing Manager

Vanessa Gross
FringeArts Venue & Patron Services Director

FRINGEARTS